

CHÂTEAU DE CAMPUGET

Costières de Nîmes, the easternmost appellation of the Languedoc, is effectively part of the Rhône since the climate, soil and topography are so similar to those just over the river in the southern Côtes-du-Rhône vineyards. The relatively uniform soils are marked by large pebbles on gentle, typically south-facing slopes.

Château de Campuget was established in 1942 and is a top quality estate near Nîmes with a long history. In its cellar, tradition and progress unite to provide aroma, finesse and bouquet and deploys a wide range of traditional Rhone cépages to produce full, easy and spicy wines.

2013 CAMPUGET “1753” SYRAH COSTIÈRES DE NÎMES, LANGUEDOC ROUSSILLON

This wine is Campuget’s latest addition to their portfolio. There is a document in the possession of the Dalle family that shows the vineyards of Campuget were mentioned in 1753.

This 100 percent Syrah pays homage to this age-old wine tradition of winemaking at Campuget. It is done in stainless steel, with no oak treatment whatsoever.

Vintage:	2013	Country:	France
Region:	Rhône	Grape Varieties:	Syrah 100%
Alcohol by volume:	13.5%	Bottle:	75cl
Producer:	Château De Campuget

Tasting notes: Classic Syrah nose with a very intense fruit-driven character. This wine shows a smoky, liquorice character and a hint of dark chocolate with a lovely smooth and chunky but velvety texture. No oak ageing but bags of complexity.

REVERSE WINE SNOB – HIGHLY RECOMMENDED
OVERALL RATING: 7.8 – THE BEST SYRAH UNDER $20

The 2013 Campuget 1753 Syrah begins with a very pleasant aroma full of blackberry, violet, hints of cocoa, coffee and mint. Tasting the medium-bodied wine reveals tons of smooth and silky dark fruit and lots of licorice. It’s also a bit smoky and meaty just like you would expect from a good Rhone Syrah. More coffee and cocoa notes lead into the dry, dusty, chalky and very long finish.
